Four Investigations Started To Determine How Oil Got Into Marsh Creek Thursday

The discovery Thursday morning of oil in Marsh creek which tainted Gettysburg's drinking water has added more than $200 in the cost of additional chemicals to the usual water purification expense.

Today investigations were launched by the state health department and fish commission, in addition to Thursday's investigation by the Municipal Water Authority and employes of two pipe lines, Susquehanna and Southern.

John H. Long, water authority manager, said the use of additional carbon and chlorine had reduced the contamination of the water supply to a minimum. Nature aided the pumping station also. Heavy rains Thursday swelled the creek and the higher water and muddied condition carried off much of the oil, Long said.

Water authority employes, according to Mr. Long, traced the source of the oil late Thursday afternoon to a swamp adjoining the bulk plant of the Blue Ridge Oil company, Seven Stars. The company, Long said, had no explanation as to how the oil got into the swamp and from there into Marsh creek. The oil was discovered in the creek prior to the rains, Long said.

Both Susquehanna and Southern pipe line officials, notified Thursday morning, patrolled their lines and reported there were no leaks.

"We don't know yet how the oil got into the swamp," Long said this morning, "but it hadn't been there long. Oil will kill grass and vegetation, and this oil hadn't been there long enough to damage the grass."

Long said he notified state police Thursday who in turn notified the state health department at Harrisburg. John Ogden, York, fish warden, was also notified. Investigations were promised. Long said there were still oil in the creek today, but the condition was improved.

SET DATES FOR RETREATS AND YOUTH PARTY

Plans for the next deanery Youth party and dates for retreats were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the St. Francis Xavier parish Council of Catholic Women held in the local parochial school.

Mrs. Herman Frasch, president, reported that the youth party, for high school students and others over 16 years of age, will be held at St. Aloysius Catholic school, Littlestown, Friday, April 27 from 8 to 11:30 p.m.

She also announced that the first week-end retreat to be held this summer at St. Joseph's Academy, Columbia, is scheduled for April 12 to 15. She added that the week-end assigned to the Conewago Deanery of the NCCW, of which the St. Francis Xavier parish council is a part, is June 22-24, but added that members may attend other retreats by making reservations through Mrs. George R. Miller.

Mrs. Mary Eberhart, Miss Lindora Roddy and Mrs. Betty Kenworthy were named as a nominating committee to report at the next meeting.

Rev. Fr. A. F. Kane gave a brief history of the diocese of Harrisburg in a talk at the meeting. Conewago chapel is one of the oldest Catholic churches in the east, being established about 1720 by Jesuit missionaries from Baltimore, he said. An-

EXONERATE MAN AT INQUEST ON FATAL ACCIDENT

Bud Elmer DeShong, 22-year-old steel worker of Coatesville, R. 1, was exonerated of blame in the traffic death of Harvie Franklin Hancock, 30-year-old factory worker of Shippensburg, R. 2, following an inquest held Wednesday afternoon by Franklin County Coroner S. D. Shull at the Van Scyoc funeral home in Shippensburg.

The jury, in its verdict, indicated that it believed "the accident was not due to negligence on the part of the driver" and stated "we do . . . exonerate the driver, DeShong, from blame."

Hancock died enroute to the Chambersburg hospital after he had been struck by the automobile driven by DeShong as he attempted to cross the Lincoln highway in front of Kimple's Tavern at 2 o'clock the morning of April 7. His injuries were described as a fracture of the skull and compound fractures of both legs. Hancock was unconscious when he was placed in the Good Will ambulance and was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital by Dr. C. P. Brink.

Pfc. Treas Testifies

DeShong testified that he was traveling between 45 and 50 miles an hour at the time of the accident and that he saw Hancock take a couple of steps in front of his car too late to stop. The driver said the man was only about a car length in front of his car when he first saw him.

DeShong said there were several automobiles parked on each side of the highway adjacent to the tavern and he had veered his car to the center to avoid the cars, one of which had started to leave the taproom parking space and was awaiting clearing of traffic.

Pfc. James A. Treas, of the Gettysburg substation of the State police, said that Hancock's car was parked on the north side of the highway and that the man apparently was crossing the road from the Tavern to get to it.

Bernard Kimple, taproom operator, and three employes — Harry Brown, Raymond E. Kent and Earl Leonard—were shown a picture of Hancock but were unable to state whether or not he had been a customer at the tavern prior to the accident.

Paul A. Spangler, Good Will ambulance driver, told of picking up Hancock at the scene of the accident and taking him to the hospital.

Spraying, Dusting Urged By Specialist

Adams county farmers today were urged by J. O. Pepper, of the state college extension staff, to begin spraying or dusting clover and alfalfa to destroy the spittlebug. The bugs began hatching last Saturday, Pepper said, and three or four warm days will hatch them all.

To be effective the spray must be placed before the clover-alfalfa is more than five or six inches in height. As a result the work must be carried out immediately if damage from the bug is to be kept at a minimum.

Pepper said materials that may be used for sprays or dusts include benzenehexachloride, which should not be used on ground which is later to be used for potatoes or other foods, toxathene and chlordane.

MacArthur May Have To Submit To Committee Quizzing Before Addressing Congress Next Week

Washington, April 13 (AP) — Gen Douglas MacArthur today was invited to appear before the Senate Armed Services committee to discuss American policies in the Far East.

Chairman Russell (D.-Ga.) announced the invitation in a statement saying:

"The American people are entitled to know all of the facts involved—except those which cannot be released for reasons of security—about the clash in policies advocated by President Truman and MacArthur in Asia."

Washington, April 13 (AP) — Administration leaders were reported willing today to go along with a limited invitation for Gen. Douglas MacArthur to give Congress his version of the far eastern controversy.

They apparently were planning to insist, however, that the deposed Pacific commander submit to questioning before committees not only on his policy views but on his record in the Korean fighting.

Meantime, MacArthur-for-president sentiment was reportedly being renewed and the president of Remington-Rand, Inc., confirmed reports that the ousted general will become an executive with his firm.

Reach No Decision

Senator McFarland of Arizona, the Democratic leader, said no final decision on giving MacArthur a congressional hearing has been made. He said he had talked to House Speaker Rayburn of Texas about the matter and would confer with him again.

Others predicted the administration would bow to the inevitable but would like to keep MacArthur's appearance on an unofficial plane similar to that on which Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower recently reported to lawmakers at a meeting in the Library of Congress.

Although Eisenhower addressed an official joint session at the close of World War II, it was pointed out that MacArthur is coming home in the role of a commander fired by the President because he persisted in expressing views contrary to presidential policies.

Red Withdrawals May Pave Way For Heavy Air Strikes On Advanced Allied Forces

By OLEN CLEMENTS

Tokyo, Saturday, April 14 (AP) —Red Chinese withdrawals in North Korea Friday coincided with a warnng that they might be preparing the way for heavy air strikes at the advancing Allied ground forces.

In the wake of history's greatest jet air battle, Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, commander of the U.S. Far East Air Forces, said the growing Communist air arm might soon start ground attacks.

In nine and one-half months of war, such Red raids have been limited to minor nuisance bombings by one or two planes.

Destroy Eight Red Planes

Allied airmen are forbidden to strike at the Manchurian bases of the Red air force, General Stratemeyer noted in an interview. "Our only recourse is to blunt the attack once it is launched," he said.

Stratemeyer's warning came in the wake of the jet battle.

In that fight 80 Russian-type MIG-15 jets attacked 115 U.S. jets and 32 American B-29 superforts.

The Allied warplanes destroyed eight of the speedy Red planes, probably destroyed seven, and damaged 18 others.

Figures Differ On Losses

Accounts of American loss differed. The Far East Air Force said no planes were lost but two superforts were damaged and had to land in Korea.

The Air Force in Washington announced Friday, however, that two U.S. B-29s were shot down by Red jets in the big battle near the Yalu river. It said several other U.S. bombers were damaged but were able to land at Allied bases. An air force spokesman said none of the U.S. jets in the fight was damaged or destroyed.

Stratemeyer said there was "unmistakable evidence" that the Reds were planning to step up their air operations over Korea.

Making New Airstrips

He said six or more new air strips were being sraped out of rice paddies in North Korea. Existing airfields between the Yalu river boundary and the Allied front lines were being repaired, he added.

On the ground, Allied troops, supported by heavy artillery fire, gained a key ridge south of the Kwachon reservoir on the central front.

Remnants of a North Korean division still were entrenched on the Capt. Robert L. Scott, Gettysburg R. 2, has been recalled for active duty with the U. S. Army.

A World War II veteran, he served for five years during that war, first with the local National Guard unit when it was federalized and later with Army Air Force ordnance in the European Theater of Operations.

He is being recalled for duty, starting April 24, with army ordnance. He will report to Fort George G. Meade, Md. After his return from overseas he helped organize and commanded for a time the National Guard unit here.

FIREMEN PLAN TO INCREASE PUMP CAPACITY

The Gettysburg fire company has plans under way to recondition and make alterations to its Chevrolet pumper which, when the new 750-gallon pumper is delivered will give Gettyburg fire fighting apparatus a total pumping capacity in the event of a large fire of 2,100 gallons of water per minute.

This was revealed following a meeting of officers at the engine house Thursday afternoon which included an inspection of the Chevrolet truck and discussion of plans for its renovation. The work, which will be under the direction of Fire Chief James A. Aumen, will include removal of the present ladders which are carried in racks on top of the truck, and installation of a 500-gallon booster tank.

Increase To 2,100 Gallons

The pump which has a rated capacity of 350 gallons per minute, will remain. In addition to this pumper, the fire company has two pumpers of 500 gallons capacity each, which give the company a present pumping capacity of 1,350 gallons per minute. When the new Mack is delivered, its 750-gallon capacity will boost the total to 2,100.

Booster tank capacity will also be greatly increased. Two of the pumpers now have 120 and 160 gallon booster tanks. When the Mack is delivered, with its 500-gallon water tank, and the Chevrolet is equipped with a new 500-gallon tank, the booster tank total will be increased to 1,280 gallons.

The Chevrolet pumper, which has been used only for fires within the borough and is not taken out of town, has only 3,200 miles on its speedometer. The pump, manufactured by American LaFrance was originally installed on the company's old Brockway truck. It was transferred to the Chevrolet when this truck was purchased.

To Be Utility Truck

The Chevrolet, when alterations are completed, will be used as a utility, Chief Aumen said. It will replace the service truck for many utility puposes, so that the latter vehicle, with its iron lung, inhalators and other rescue equipment, can be retained at the engine house for emergencies instead of going to all fires. The utility truck will also be used for summer meetings in the mountains leaving the service truck at home.

Officers of the fire company signed the contract for the new Mack truck at the engine house Thursday afternoon.

ADVANCE PLANS ON BUILDING OF COMMUNITY HALL

A community hall meeting was held in the fire hall Wednesday evening and was called to order by Mayor Thornton W. Rodgers, who then reviewed developments on the buildings plan for a community hall.

It was decided to set up a tentative organization for preparing by-laws, gathering information and calling another public meeting when a permanent organization is to be set up. The following temporary officers were elected: President, Edgar Emrich; vice president, Guy Baker, Jr.; secretary, Paul Keepers; treasurer, Thornton W. Rodgers. The following directors were selected: Col. Thomas J. Frailey, B. H. Boyle and Guy Baker, Sr.

In the discussion it was brought out that there are two sites strongly suggested for the location of the proposed hall. One location is the town property on South Seton avenue and the other the lot owned by the fire company adjacent to the shoe factory.

Committees were appointed to secure estimates on similar buildings which have been erected by other towns. In the discussion Wednesday night it was developed that a building of about 75 by 150 feet in size would be needed to meet the community needs for a suitable place where basketball and other recreational opportunities could be provided for the youth and to provide a suitable hall for community and organization affairs such as farm shows, flower shows, carnivals and serve the community as a social and civic center. One spokesman estimated that the proposed building could be erected for about $50,000. The idea of the community building the hall with as much volunteer labor and equipment as possible rather than by contract seemed to find favor Wednesday night.

New Business Opens

Another business has been established in Emmitsburg with the opening of Hedges' dry cleaning and shoe repair store on West Main street next door to Harner's bowling alleys. The Reformed church of Emmitsburg, Rev. Edmund P. Walker, pastor, announced these events: Sunday school, 9:30 a.m.; morning worship at 10:30 o'clock.

A Regional Guild meeting will be held at Grace Reformed church, Taneytown, Md., Wednesday, April 18, at 10 a.m.

The Frederick County Farm Bureau held a district meeting of farmers at the Emmitsburg high school Wednesday evening. M. Among her activities was the reconversion of an army barracks into a tuberculosis sanitorium at Lintz, Austria, for which she secured refugee doctors to administer to the refugee patients.

other old Pennsylvania church, he added, is St. Mary's at Lancaster, founded in 1742. At that time all of the territory under the diocese of Harrisburg was included in the jurisdiction of the diocese of Philadelphia.

Establish Other Churches

The Jesuits at Conewago established the Gettysburg church in 1830 on South Washington street. In 1853 the present St. Francis Xavier Catholic church on West High street was dedicated. The Jesuits also established the church in Buchanan Valley, St. Ignatius Loyola, and at Littlestown, in 1790, established St. Aloysius church. The three churches bear the names of saints of the order of the Society of Jesus.

The diocese of Harrisburg was opened and cut off from Philadelphia in 1868, Father Kane said, adding that the diocese is slightly smaller in area than Massachusetts. It extends south to the Maryland line and north as far as Berwick. Several of the counties in the diocese still are without a Catholic church and some counties have only one church, he added. There are more than 107,000 Catholics in the area, about 120 priests and 60 members of religious orders.

Father Kane said that title to part at least of the church property in Gettysburg was made out in the name of St. Joseph's college, Philadelphia. At the time the property was bought, apparently only the college was established as a corporation and thus could hold property, he said.

Red Withdrawals

reverse side of the ridge, but the main body of the Red division had withdrawn northward, leaving their well-entrenched positions.

Hard-hitting artillery paid dividends all along the east-central front, and the Reds began to pull back slowly before all Allied units in this area.

Red Withdrawal General

Other Allied troops operating south and southeast of the reservoir pushed forward Friday against light resistance.

U.N. forces lunged up one slope so rapidly they overran a completely equipped Communist air station.

The withdrawing Reds were setting up a main defense line anchored to the reservoir, a major source of pre-war power for Seoul and South Korea.

The Red withdrawal appeared to be in progress all across the central front.

Start Organization Of Midget Baseball Loop For Lads 8 To 13 Years

Initial steps in the formation of a Midget baseball league, to be known as the Eddie Plank Memorial Midget Baseball league, were taken at a meeting of fraternal, veterans' and civic organization representatives Thursday evening at the American Legion home, Baltimore street.

The league, which is sponsored by the Recreation association, will be for boys from eight to 13 years of age.

Donald Joseph, Recreation director, told the group that the league will probably operate as a four-team circuit during the coming season with other teams being organized for candidates who fail to make the grade with the league teams.

It is planned to start the league about the middle of June with two weeks of "spring practice" listed prior to the opening.

Card Night Games

Two games a week, those listed for Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, will be played under the lights at the Recreation field as the second game of double-headers. The opening games those evenings will be regular Softball league contests.

Mr. Joseph reported that an invitation has been received from the Mason-Dixon tournament to send a Gettysburg team to the annual affair which is held in York in late summer.

The league will operate under the direction of a board of directors which will be composed of representatives of the various organizations backing the league.

Another meeting has been listed for Thursday evening, April 26, at the Legion home when officers will be elected and additional plans mapped.

Those attending the meeting Thursday were Orlyn Hixon, VFW; Richard Dreas, Rotary club; Ernest Simpson, Exchange club; George Kitzmiller, Albert J. Lentz post, American Legion; Leo Dillman, Moose; Leo McDermitt, Lions club; Johnny Knox and Mr. Joseph, Recreation association.

TWO PROMISING HEAVIES CLASH

New York, April 13 (AP) — Bob Baker and Friday the 13th gang up on Elkins Brothers, willing Washington, D. C., heavyweight, tonight at St. Nicholas arena. The proceedings will be carried on radio (ABC) and television (NBC) at 10 (EST).

Not that Mr. Baker needs any help from the calendar. Unbeaten in 19 pro starts, 14 by knockouts, the 24-year-old Pittsburgh negro is a hot shot. They talk about him as a future heavyweight champ.

Many sound boxing men compare Baker with the young Joe Louis. His hands move with the same flashing speed. And he combined boxing knowhow with a solid zing.

Ranked 8th in the latest NBA listing, Baker is willing to fight anybody except Champion Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott. That can wait another year.

Brothers can give Baker or anybody a rough evening. A flailing puncher who bores in consistently, he is hard to hit cleanly. It will be almost a Mutt and Jeff show with Baker 6-foot 1½ and sturdy Brothers 5-foot 9½. Brothers, stopped by Bob Satterfield at St. Nick's, has lost only six of 32 fights.

Bream's Bowlers Win Loop Honors

The Glenn L. Bream garage bowling team won the championship of the Big Eight league by defeating the Gettysburg News Agency Thursday evening on the Littlestown alleys. The garagemen won the second half title while the Agency copped the first half honors.

In sweeping all three games the victors totaled 2,686 to their opponents' 2,577. Mike Tate was high for the Bream-men with 595 while Harold Hummer led the Agency with 537.

Training Camp Briefs

Philadelphia, April 13 (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics — without Connie Mack at the helm—play at Shibe park today for the first time.

The A's, starting the 1951 season under their second manager in more than 50 years, take the field under Jimmy Dykes. They meet the National league champion Philadelphia Phillies in the first of a three-game city series. Last year the Phils won the series, 2-0.

Ace righthander Robin Roberts, a 20-game winner in 1950, will start for Phils' Manager Eddie Sawyer. Dykes is expected to counter with Bobby Schantz in the 1951 home town debut for both sides.

The teams are fielding squads much the same as the 1950 lineups.

Both were idle yesterday. A scheduled Phils-Cincinnati game at Charleston, W. V., was rained out.

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—Traveling Secretary Bob Rice of the Pittsburgh Pirates hopes for good weather for the two week-end exhibition tilts with the Washington Senators.

Rice says the Bucs need $60,000 to pay for their spring training jaunt and so far they've taken in only $41,000. Although, he added, that's $3,000 better than they did in the corresponding period last year.

Manager Bill Meyer wants good weather, too. With their last three games rained out and none set for today, Bill is afraid his boys will be rusty by National league opening day.

New York, April 13 (AP)—The world champion New York Yankees reached town, after a trip from Pittsburgh, ready for their exhibition game today against the Brooklyn Dodgers at the Stadium. Ed Lopat and Vic Raschi are slated to pitch for the Bombers against Don Newcombe.

Washington, April 13 (AP)—Dan Bankhead, Brooklyn Dodger righthander, is improving, but he still allows the long ball hit. Against Washington last night he yielded a two-run triple to Mickey Vernon. In the fifth he again was belted for a two-run three-bagger, this time by Sam Mele.

Winston-Salem, N. C., April 13 (AP)—The New York Giant fans hope the Polo Grounders keep on hitting after the season opens next week like they have been doing recently.

Yesterday they walloped Cleveland, 13-6, with an 18-hit attack, including five homers. That made it 18 circuit clouts and 75 runs for the Giants in their last eight games.

Norfolk, Va., April 13 (AP)—Southpaw Johnny Vander Meer apparently is not the answer to the Cleveland Indians' relief pitcher needs.

Johnny, only player ever to hurl to straight no-hitters in the big leagues, tried out in the fourth inning yesterday at Winston-Salem, N. C. New York's Giants pounded him for five runs on seven hits. Now 36, the former Cincinnati great was hired last week strictly on a trial basis. He may not get another chance.

Draft Board Turns Down Baseball Star

Miami, Okla., April 13 (AP)—New York Yankee baseball rookie Mickey Mantle has been found "not acceptable" for induction to military service "at the present time," his local Selective Service board disclosed today.

The board received this morning from the Tulsa Army Examining center a report on the widely-publicized physical Mantle underwent here last Wednesday with nine other youths from his home area of Ottawa county.

The 19-year-old Commerce, Okla., product was classified 4-F before taking the test, his first examination under the eyes of the army.

MOST MANAGERS NEED ANOTHER GOOD PITCHER

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's an old tune, but as long as there's baseball, major league managers will sing it. It's a short one and goes like this:

"Give me another pitcher."

With the official opening of the majors only three days away, most managers were making eleventh hour efforts today to bolster their mound staffs—with the possible exception of the Boston Red Sox and the New York Giants. Both Steve O'Neill, Sox skipper, and Leo Durocher of the Giants, can sit back and watch the scramble.

The Sox and the Giants are two of the favorites to take the American and National league flags. But how about their main rivals?

In the American, the defending Champion New York Yankees are worried, indeed, what with Allie Reynolds on the sidelines. He's due back soon, but that doesn't keep the Yank brass from worrying.

Vandermeer Pounded

The Cleveland Indians? A good tipoff on what the Tribe thinks of its hurling depth can be found in yesterday's box score. Johnny (remember his two straight no-hitters 12 years ago?) Vandermeer hooked on with the Indians on a trial basis last week.

He got into one inning against the New York Giants at Winston-Salem, N. C., yesterday and was pounded for seven hits and five runs while the giants were running up a 13-6 triumph.

In the National league, if anyone is going to beat out the Giants, say the experts, it will be the Brooklyn Dodgers. Brook President Walter O'Malley said only yesterday that "Cincinnati, Boston and St. Louis have pitchers we could use."

Howie Pollet of the Redbirds is the boy O'Malley would like to see in a Brooklyn uniform, and it isn't entirely out of the question that Pollet might be had. Fred Saigh, Card chieftain, naturally has a heavy price on Howie, but the Dodgers have some expendable talent that Saigh might like.

And so it goes right down to the potential second division clubs. . . . Give them another pitcher and they might be a threat.

They might at that.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

South Bend, Ind., April 13 (AP)—The nation's sports experts have just chosen Knute Rockne of Notre Dame as the all-time All-America football coach and you'd have to look a long way in this city to find anyone who disagrees . . . Everywhere you go—downtown, in the beautiful Rockne Memorial building on the Notre Dame campus, in the athletic offices, you find memories of Rock. . . . His homely, weather-beaten face stares at you and you still feel the charm of the man who died 20 years ago. . . . Rock's smile has been compared to Gen. Ike Eisenhower's, not handsome, but you just feel good to see it. . . . And his popularity was so great that his death caused a breakdown of the South Bend telephone system. . . . A telephone exchange is geared up to handle so many calls at one-time—only about half as many as there are phone outlets. . . . And when the shocking news of Rock's death in a plane crash in a Kansas pasture in March, 1931, spread through South Bend, so many people tried to call at the same time to verify the report that the machinery failed.

MATHEMATICALLY CORRECT

One of the favorite stories told by Rock's followers—and there are thousands of stories as well as millions of followers—concerns the time Pop Warner (No. 2 coach in the experts' estimation) advanced a theory that a team should be awarded a point for every first down it made. . . . Warner seemed to have a pretty good argument: his Stanford team had ground out a lot of first downs against Rock's Irish only to have Notre Dame roll up a lopsided score on long-gaining plays. . . . The suggestion received serious consideration until Rock demolished it with one sentence: "Yeah, and I suppose you'd give half a run for a two-base hit."

THE MASTER'S SCHOOLMASTER

Frank (The Master) Leahy, who has carried on the Rockne tradition of winning football games partly by using Rockne's methods, stopped in a discussion of modern football yesterday to recall: "One reason why Rockne was so successful was that he could explain things in such a simple, matter-of-fact way. He had the knack of teaching. . . . Rockne could take a physical education class in football—and not all of those lads were so bright up here—and explain things in such a down-to-earth way that they'd all pass a tough examination with grades of about 80."

MacArthur

were lined up almost solidly behind a resolution by Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the GOP floor leader, for a joint meeting.

The resolution had the public support of Democratic Senators Eastland of Mississippi and McCarran of Nevada. It also had the backing of some other Democrats who didn't want to be quoted by name.

One of these told a reporter he thinks the split over Far Eastern policies dramatized by the President's firing of MacArthur has cut so deep that there can be no hope of unity until President Truman replaces Secretary of State Acheson. The Senator added that he doesn't expect the President to take any such action.

The national headquarters of the "MacArthur for President" committee here declared that the furore over MacArthur had generated renewed demand for him as president.

Martin Talks Tonight

James H. Rand, president of Remington-Rand, Inc., confirmed last night that General MacArthur will become a board member and executive of the big business equipment concern. He spoke to reporters aboard his 130-foot yacht at the Fort Myers, Fla., yacht basin. Rand would not comment on a report that MacArthur will be paid $100,000 a year.

The Republicans teed off on President Truman in the Senate again yesterday, paced by a proposal by Senator Welker (R.-Idaho) that Mr. Truman resign and let Vice President Barkley "restore unity and confidence" in the country.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts will broadcast his reply to Mr. Truman's charges against MacArthur over NBC and CBS at 10:30 (EST) tonight.

MAN ADMITS KILLING WIFE

Mineola, N. Y., April 13 (AP) — A former East Liverpool, O., man was held here as a fugitive today after he surrendered and told police he killed his wife 10 years ago, a death that was recorded as a suicide.

The tall, neatly-dressed man identified himself as John "Tennessee" Higgins. He walked into police headquarters here last night and said he decided to give himself up because he had been unable to sleep lately.

Assistant Chief Inspector Stuyvesant Pinnell, of Nassau county police, said Higgins, a one-time porter who has been working as an itinerant kitchen helper, informed police he suspected his wife of unfaithfulness and put five poison tablets in a glass of wine she drank. The death was listed as a suicide and authorities did not question Higgins.

Nassau county police telephoned District Attorney J. L. MacDonald, of Columbiana county, Ohio, who confirmed Mrs. Higgins death. Higgins was held for Ohio officers.

ANOTHER LONG ISLAND CAGER IS ARRAIGNED

New York, April 13 (AP)—Dick Feurtado, former Long Island university basketball player, will be arraigned today on bribery charges growing out of the college sport's biggest game-rigging scandal.

The 24-year-old Feurtado, a Santa Cruz, Calif., gas station attendant, was the 17th player or former player arrested for allegedly fixing games in Madison Square Garden. An 18th man, a former player, is being held as a material witness.

Feurtado voluntarily came yesterday to talk with District Attorney Frank S. Hogan.

Several hours later the former player was arrested and held in $1,000 bail for his appearance today in felony court. Now married, Feurtado quit school in January, 1950, during his senior year.

Hogan said Feurtado got $4,000 for helping to fix three LIU games in the 1949-1950 season and one game the previous season. LIU lost all four contests.

List Games Involved

The LIU games—all played at the Garden—were with Duquesne (55-64), North Carolina State (52-55), Cincinnati (63-85), and Syracuse (52-80).

The Duquesne game was played January 1, 1949. The other three were played early in 1950, the Syracuse game dropping LIU out of the first round of the National Invitation tournament.

Hogan said the fixmaster in the four games was Salvatore T. Sollazzo, New York jewelry manufacturer now awaiting trial on 13 counts of bribery involving alleged fixing of 23 other Garden games.

Besides LIU, the courtmen involved attended Manhattan, New York university and CCNY.

Sollazzo is one of five alleged fixers under arrest. The district attorney said Eddie Gard, another ex-LIU player already in custody, was the go-between for Feurtado and Sollazzo.

BRADLEY MAY BE REQUESTED TO RETAIN POST

Washington, April 13 (AP) — Gen. Omar Bradley may be asked to stay on for another term as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, it was learned today.

The five-star general, now 58 years old, had planned to take off his uniform and do some fishing and hunting after next August 16. That's the date his two-year tour of duty in the JCS post ends.

But President Truman is said to want the "GI General" to remain on.

Bradlye would have been eligible to retire five years ago under the 30-year retirement provision of the Army. However, he passed up retirement to serve first as Chief of Staff of the Army, then as chairman of the joint chiefs.

In the latter post, he has had to handle problems equal to any he encountered either as Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's ground deputy in the European war or as army staff chief.

Far East Problem

To the purely military troubles arising from the Korean war and the buildup of American forces in Western Europe was added the stormy political controversy which reached a dramatic climax early Wednesday when President Truman fired Gen. Douglas MacArthur. As one of Mr. Truman's chief counselors on military matters, Bradley presumably had to make his recommendation when the President was weighing the question of reprimanding or firing the Far Eastern commander.

Bradley is the first man to hold the JCS chairmanship under the post officially created by an act of Congress. Eisenhower served for six months as a "coordinator" for the joint chiefs, an arrangement made by the late Secretary of Defense Forrestal and Mr. Truman. However, that assignment was only by an executive provision. In the meantime, amendments made to the original service unification bill included formal creation of the post of chairman and Mr. Truman asked Bradley to accept the job.

TRIM COAL PRICE

Philadelphia, April 13 (AP)—Major anthracite producers today announced cuts in coal prices, ranging from 20 to 35 cents a ton. The reductions, customarily made by the industry in the spring, are offered to encourage householders to stock up their bins during the summer months.

Lancaster, Pa., April 13 (AP)—Cattle, 412, receipts moderate, prices steady. Calves 18, light receipts and prices fully steady. Hogs 29, receipts are light and bulk of handyweights moving out at $22-22.25. Sheep 13, few lambs on the market, demand good.

Stone Of Scone Enroute To London

Glasgow, Scotland, April 13 (AP)—The stolen coronation stone of Britain was smuggled out of the Glasgow police station at dawn today for its return to London.

The hallowed stone of Scone was accompanied by a four-car police convoy to guard against attempts by Scottish patriots to snatch it for a second time.

The stone, taken from Westminster Abbey early last Christmas morning, was turned over to a church watchman in Arbroath two days ago by three unidentified Scots.

They handed the watchman a letter to King George VI saying the stone was purloined to dramatize Scotland's desire for a measure of home rule.

Police were mum on the route being followed or the arrival time of the convoy.

RAIDS ON CHINA ADVOCATED BY SENATOR TAFT

New York, April 13 (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) says prevention of a third world conflict "cannot now be accomplished without an aggressive war against Communist China."

Taft spoke last night at a meeting of the Yale Engineering association.

"It seems utterly ridiculous to me," he said, "that when there are 500,000 (Nationalist Chinese) soldiers on Formosa, some of them well-trained and ready to go, and thousands of guerrillas in south China with whom they can cooperate, we should not permit raids and invasion to make as much trouble for the Chinese Communists as possible x x x.

Won't Incite Russia

"I cannot see why such a policy would in any way incite Russia to war unless they're determined to go to war anyway."

"From a moral standpoint," the Ohio Republican added, "we would be wholly justified in a complete invasion of China to punish an unprovoked aggressor. Practical considerations, of course, make it impossible, and no one has proposed it.

"General MacArthur and everyone else knows it would take many American divisions, and that those divisions are not available and will not be for two years. Also I agree that such a general invasion of China might unduly incite Soviet Russia to war."

"If the original sending of American troops to Korea was to prevent world war III — as the President said last (Wednesday) night — then that purpose has been long completely lost from sight," Taft declared.

Inconsistent Policy

"It cannot now be accomplished without an aggressive war against Communist China and a punishment of the aggressor, as the North Koreans were punished.

"The President's position is completely inconsistent. He justified an active move against Korean aggression as a means of preventing world war III.

"In the second half of his speech he claims world war III is prevented by a timid war against Communist China, and maintaining a Maginot line defense against an aggressor which has already accomplished half his purpose."

To Meet Sunday On State Redistricting

Washington, April 13 (AP)—Pennsylvania's redistricting problems will be discussed Sunday in Harrisburg at a meeting of state Assembly and congressional Representatives.

Rep. Simpson, dean of the state's Republican House delegation, said the meeting will be held in the state capitol at 7:30 p.m.

The state Legislature must decide how three districts will be eliminated. Members have asked congressmen to make suggestions.

The Washington group will present three suggested plans, none of which has been made public. Rumor has it the plan having greatest support would eliminate the districts now represented by Reps. Gillette, Towanda Republican; O'Neill, Scranton Democrat, and Lind, York Democrat.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

1,000 At Dawn Service: "One of the practical aspects of Easter is 'For me to live is Christ,'" said the Rev. Dr. Robert F. Fritsch, head of the Bible department of Muhlenburg college, guests speaker at the union Easter dawn service Sunday morning at 6 o'clock in St. James Lutheran church.

Approximately 1,000 persons, representing a score or more of Adams county churches, attended the services.

Trumpet music of Easter hymns was played by Edward Hughes, Robert Hartman and Charles Chamberlain from 5:45 until 6 o'clock as the audience assembled.

The Buffton college a cappella choir of fifty voices, attired in vestments, led the procession up the church.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

OUR OTHER I

In his inspiring address on Courage, delivered at St. Andrews in 1922, J. M. Barrie referred to another by the name of M'Connachie, which he explained was his other half—the practical half. The writing half was Barrie himself.

As I read that I wondered if it wouldn't be a good idea if each one of us had another "I" that we might give a name, and take him into partnership and depend upon him to advise us and to try and keep us out of trouble and keep us from making so many mistakes. You see we could get along very well with what would be the other half of us, and it would be a secret arrangement that no one would ask about.

There would be nothing illegal about such a plan. Barrie, apparently, got along fine with that other half, M'Connachie. Certainly there would be no outside interference with the plan and it might work wonders. I think I shall try it anyway—if I can think up a good name to give to the practical half, which it would have to be, for I prefer to handle the writing half with the name that I already have!

Without realizing it, I suppose there are many who already have other halves doing good jobs for them, else there would not be so many happy and successful people in the world. With our other half, named and identified, however, we could undoubtedly add to our joy of life, especially since no one would suspect that we were two instead of one. I think that Barrie had something worth emulating.

Each one of us has the good part and the bad part. It is the better I that is the most important, and the one most in need of watching and correcting. The practical one could well do this, and encourage us to be more courageous and less critical of the other half.

The thing I like best about the entire plan is that it would tend to make us more talerant and less complaining, for we wouldn't like to have a quarrel with our other half for it might do damage to the half that we thought the most of! Anyway I give the idea to you for what it is worth, or may be, to you.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "You Can."

DANDELIONS

Ask me why dandelions are thick and what their purpose, I should say:
"They're meant for children
small to pick
To be their mothers' first
bouquet."

The gardeners call them "just a weed"
That spoils the lawn from spring to fall;
Is quick to blossom, quick to seed
And has no market worth at all.

The florists think them too
profuse,
Too commonplace their petals
gold;
And yet they have a lovelier use
Than any blossom that is sold.

God must have made them,
flower and stem
And root, to thrive where youngsters play
So they may freely gather them
For that first beautiful
bouquet.

Truman Says MacArthur Did Not Agree With U.S. Policy In Far East, Conduct Of War

Washington, April 13 (AP)—President Truman has pinned high hopes for peace—and vindication for firing Gen. Douglas MacArthur—on the crushing of a threatened Communist spring offensive in Korea.

Mr. Truman told the nation in a radio and television talk Wednesday that he relieved MacArthur of his Pacific commands because the five-star general disagrees with his policy aimed at preventing the Korean fighting from spreading into a world war. Less than 22 hours had elapsed since the announcement of the picturesque general's dismissal stirred this nation and the rest of the free world.

"We do not want to see the conflict in Korea extended," the President said solemnly and firmly. "We are trying to prevent a world war—not to start one."

Feared General War

Mr. Truman said that the bombing of Red bases in Manchuria and the use of Chinese Nationalist troops from Formosa—both advocated by MacArthur—would involve "a grave risk of starting a general war."

He made it clear he believes that if a threatened new mass offensive by the Communists in Korea is crushed, the Reds may decide that further aggression there or elsewhere is "folly." Then, he said, the door would be open to a peaceful settlement "which will not compromise the principle and purposes of the United Nations."

"Defeat of aggression in Korea may be the turning point in the world's search for a practical way of achieving peace and security," the President predicted.

The President said there are signs that the Communists are building up for a new mass attack in Korea. He expressed confidence that it will be turned back.

3 Steps To Peace

"The United Nations forces are tough and able and well equipped," he said. "They are fighting for a just cause. x x x We pray that their efforts may succeed. For upon their success may hinge the peace of the world."

Mr. Truman said that "real peace" could be achieved on three basic conditions:

"One: The fighting must stop.

"Two: Concrete steps must be taken to insure that fighting will not break out again.

"Three: There must be an end to aggression."

He added that "a settlement founded upon these elements would open the way for the unification of Korea and the withdrawal of all foreign forces."

Slows Red Schedule

Mr. Truman said that while the resolute stand in Korea already has "slowed down the time table of conquest," the Communists in the Kremlin still have the decision on whether there shall be war or peace.

"It may well be that, in spite of our best efforts, the Communists may spread the war," he warned. "But it would be wrong—tragically wrong—for us to take the initiative in extending the war."

He said he is trying to limit the war in Korea "to make sure that the precious lives of our fighting men are not wasted; to see that the security of our country and the free world is not needlessly jeopardized; and to prevent a third world war."

"A number of events have made it evident that General MacArthur did not agree with that policy," the President said. "I have therefore considered it essential to relieve General MacArthur so that there would be no doubt or confusion as to the real purpose and aim of our policy."

He said it was "with the deepest personal regret" that he took the action, because he regards MacArthur as "one of our greatest military commanders."

Read Secret Records

"But the cause of world peace is more important than any individual," the President said.

The President read from what he said were two secret intelligence reports.

One quoted a Moscow-trained Communist officer as having predicted the invasion of South Korea a month before it happened last June and having called it "the first step toward the liberation of Asia."

The second quoted another Communist officer as saying that the United States "is the only obstacle on our road for the liberation of all countries in southeast Asia."

The President said that the Communists "want to control all Asia from the Kremlin." The best way of stopping that, he added, is to defeat the attack in Korea.

He made no mention, however, of additional forces for the Korean fighting, a request that MacArthur has made repeatedly.

The five-star general found himself in sharp demand. A lecture group with which the geenral had an honorary connection cabled him an offer of a "million dollar" lecture tour.

Washington, April 13 (AP) — The Supreme cvourt has unanimously ruled Maryland may require candidates for state and city offices to swear they are not engaged in any attempt to overthrow the government by force and violence.

FLIER LANDS ON MOUNT RAINIER

McChord Air Force Base, Wash., April 13 (AP)—An air force flier landed atop 14,408-foot Mount Rainier yesterday—and he's still there.

He wasn't able to take off again.

The stranded flier is Lieut. John Hodgkins, 31, of Selma, Calif. He huddled in his souped-up Piper Cub plane throughout the night in 20 below zero temperature while the air force and Park Service tried to figure ways and means of getting him down.

Friends say Hodgkins has a desire to be known as the flier who has landed and taken off from a higher point than anyone else in the world. He claimed he had done so with a 10,600-foot mountain—where it is informants couldn't say—and decided on capping Mount Rainier after hearing somebody in South America had landed on and taken off a peak higher than his 10,600-foot "airport."

Gets Emergency Help

So yesterday Hodgkins spread straw on the runway at a tiny airport at Spanaway, a dozen miles from Tacoma and about 60 miles from Mount Rainier, then took off in his ski-equipped plane.

Sgt. Charles Bunch, 36, Tacoma, flying in another plane, accompanied Hodgkins as far as the mountain top in clear weather.

"If he can get the motor started he can take off, as it's fairly flat where he is," Bunch said.

A B-17 made two drops of emergency equipment into the crater last night. The drops landed several hundred feet away from Hodgkins in the crater, which is about a mile and a half across and full of snowdrifts, mounds and caverns.

50 Women Ill And Food Is Blamed

Philadelphia, April 13 (AP)—Police said some 50 women employes of the International Resistance company in downtown Philadelphia became ill last night apparently from eating food at a restaurant in the plant building.

Ten of those suffering from a severe digestive disorder were taken to hospitals. Police said that as the illness spread among the women all work was stopped.

The company employs nearly 2,000 women, assigned to its shops on three floors of the Terminal Commerce building on North Broad street.

The first victims reported sick about 10 p.m., and were attended by a company nurse. Then, as others fell ill, two doctors were called, and later police emergency details. Chairs and tables were set out in hallways to accommodate those stricken.

Sunday School Lesson

By

Rev. Dr. Howard R. and Margaret C. Gold

THE PERIOD OF THE PATRIARCHS

Genesis 15:1-6; 17:5-8; 19:19

Memory selection: I am thy shield, and thy great reward. Gen. 15:1.

In the previous lesson we learned of the coming of sin into the life of man. We noted then that God at once prepered the way of redemption which culminated in Christ's atoning work. Today we have before us an early step in that long road for mankind back to God. It has to do with a covenant God made with Abraham, who was destined for great things in God's plan. A covenant is "a solemn agreement between two parties. In this agreement God made the offer and Abraham responded in faith.

Later in the year a period will be devoted to Abraham as a pioneer in action. Today the heart of the lesson is the intimate relation between God and his chosen servant as seen in the "covenant" between them.

"Fear Not"

Abraham with his small army of well trained men defeated four kings who had combined against him. But there were other kings with ambition and Abraham was afraid. It was then that God appearedto him, "Fear not, Abram, I am thy shield." However, Abraham had other worries. He had no heirs and that was serious with any oriental. God gave a poetic touch by taking Abraham out and pointing to the numberless stars with the promise, "So shall thy seed be." and Abraham believed his God. So at their great age Isaac was born to Abraham and his wife Sarah and a rite was commanded by God as the mark of a people chosen to carry out "an everlasting covenant."

It should be noted that in all this God took the initiative. "The word of the Lord came unto Abram." It is the first time this expression was used in the Bible. Later it was used many times. Prophets and other pious children of God declared his messages to them in the same phrasing. The intimate relationhip established between God and his faithful servant Abraham continue unbroken through the years. N wonder the patriarch was pleased t be called "The Friend of God, for that friendship had grown t real intimacy during the long tim Abraham journeyed from the cit of Ur on the Euphrates to the prom ised land of Canaan.

It would be interesting to kno of the first stirrings in the heart Abraham which made him a goo prospect for such leadership as th Lord God required. It was God purpose to win people to himself the only true God. That purpose evident in all Old Testament re ords. It was a long campaign again

Inasmuch as spiritual development embraces the enduring qualities of our existence, the Church can truly be called the symbol of civilization.

History proves that the most highly civilized nations are those which encouraged and promoted the life of the mind and spirit. Buildings have crumbled, cities have disappeared, and great states have become as legend, but the revelations of God remain eternal.

That is why the appearance of a church is a sign of progress, whether it be in a vast metropolis or in a country village. For the Church represents man's quest for immortal Truth.

When you support the Church you will be contributing to the progress of civilization. You will enrich and enjoy your only imperishable possession—your soul.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CANADA WILL NOT BE YES MAN FOR UNCLE SAM

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Ap Foreign Affairs Analyst

America's leadership among the free nations in the present grave international crisis has brought a blunt reminder from Canada that our northern neighbor wants to be consulted in the crises and refuses to be a "yes man" for all United States policies.

In short, Canada declines to be committed to policies automatically without discussion between the two countries. This point was registered by Canadian Foreign Minister L. B. Pearson in a friendly but very outspoken address at Toronto.

While the foreign minister didn't refer to specific cases, one assumes that his speech was inspired by the current dangerous Asiatic situation. His address would seem to be in the nature of a follow-up to a development in the United Nations last January.

Opposed Bombing China

When the United States proposed its resolution to label the Chinese Communists aggressors in Korea, Mr. Pearson asked for categorical assurance that General MacArthur wouldn't have permission to bomb China or to use Chinese Nationalist troops. U. S. Delegate Austin satisfied the Canadian minister on this point.

It is of course easy to adopt the attitude that the boundary between Canada and the United States has been wiped out. In a broad sense this is true so far as relates to friendship and way of life. However, it's a mistake to take that situation too literally, for we do remain distinct entities and, as Mr. Pearson indicates, our policies aren't always the same.

I personally haven't noted any instances where Canada has been committed to American policies without consultation. It's true that in these fast changing times of crisis it could happen that a nation would be caught in a stream unwillingly. However, we know that the last thing America wants is to put her neighbor in the position of being a "yes man."

Rich And Powerful

Every once in a while I get out my map of North America and study it with fascination. There is our United States which enjoys a large measure of world leadership. She is rich and powerful.

Then to the north is our sister nation of Canada. That is even greater territorially than the United States. Canadian resources already disclosed are tremendous, and we know that there are other vast treasures to be uncovered.

In due course Canada may have a population as big, or bigger than ours. Maybe the leadership will pass to her—who knows?

Yes, we have a deep respect for our northern neighbor, and we have a real affection for her. We don't want to trespass on her rights or commit her to our policies without consultation.

But since Canada feels that we have been forgetful, it will be well if we check to make sure we don't forget again.

CATTLE—Fresh receipts estimated at 675 head yesterday showed little change from the number on offer a week ago, but the supply was augmented by about 150 head held from earlier in the week. Salable receipts for the first four days of the current week were slightly smaller than the count for the same time last week but showed little net change compared with a year ago.

Equivalent of 15 loads of slaughter steers and 7 loads of stock cattle was included in the run. Balance of the receipts consisted of cows and bulls in most cases with the usual small number of heifers included.

Dealings were slow in initial rounds on slaughter steers but improved noticeably later. Prices were largely steady to strong but spots were on the higher side of the ledger, particularly on cattle selling around $36 and above. Most of the choice and prime steers, $36—37.50 while mixed lots of mixed commercial to choice, $34—35.50.

Little net change was noted in the selling level for slaughter heifers. The small number consisted mainly of odd lots and single head shipments of commercial and good grades, $28—33. Few utility heifers, $26—28.

Cows met a very uneven trade but moved to a rather early clearance. Sales were made on a fully steady to as much as 50c. higher basis. In extreme cases advances of more than 50c. were noted. Bulk of commercial cows, $28—31, top, $31.50; utility cows, $27—28.50; canners and cutters, $22.50—26.

A fairly broad outlet was also noted for sausage bulls. Sales were generally fully steady with earlier in the week. Commercial grade offerings, $28—32.25; utility, $25—28; odd head lightweight dairybred cutter bulls down to $23.50 or below.

Dealings were very slow in the stock cattle department throughout the morning and bulk of the run was still in first hands at the noon hour. Scattered small lots of good and choice 711-800-pound stocker steers moved to the scales at generally steady prices. Sales, $36—36.50.

CALVES—Vealers and slaughter calves met a fairly broad outlet and sold on a fully steady to strong, spots $1 higher basis. A few high-choice and prime vealers topped at $41; bulk mixed commercial to prime mainly good and choice, offerings, $36—40; few commercial and good grade offerings, $32—38; cull and utility, $20—32.

HOGS—Buyers entered the hog yards early and dealings were fairly active. Sales were generally 25c. instances 50c. higher compared with Wednesday. A deck of choice 180-220-pound barrows and gilts promising better than average yields topped the trade late at $22.75. Bulk of good and choice 170-230-pound, $22—22.50, mostly, $22.25 up; 240-260-pounds, $21.50—22; 260-300 pounds, $19.75—21.25; over 300-pounds, $19.25 down depending on weight and condition. Lighterweights in the 120-140-pound, $18.25—18.75; 140-160-pounds, $19.25—20.25. Sows less than 400-pounds, $18—18.50 but odd head choice around 350-pound and lighter offerings topped at $18.75; good grade 400-450-pound sows, $17—17.50; over 450-pounds, $16.50 down according to weight and condition. Stags discounted $3 from price for the same weight sows and garbage-fed hogs, $1.50—2 under price of same weight grain-feds.

SHEEP—Hardly enough lambs or ewes were on offer to permit an accurate comparison of prices. Quotations remained nominally unchanged. A small lot of good and choice 89-pound spring lambs, $39 and a small lot of choice freshly shorn 120-pound slaughter ewes, $17. Top quotation for spring lambs was considered to be around $40 and choice wooled slaughter ewes quoted $20.

START SUMMER SQUASH SOON

One of the main keys to success with summer varieties of squashes is to have a constant supply reaching edible size from early June until late fall. Fortunately this is not a difficult task. The first steps should be taken this week.

Summer squashes are exceptionally tender, easily damaged by frost or retarded by cold weather. Normally they cannot be safely started in the open until warm weather arrives in mid-May. To lengthen the growing season, gardeners should start plants under glass by the middle of April, repeat the planting around the first of May, and later make outdoor plantings until late summer.

There are several improved varieties claiming the gardeners consideration, including Italian Morrows, English Morrows and related named sorts. One of the most popular is the Yellow Crookneck. Another is the Mammouth White Bush. Italian Morrows are at the peak of their goodness when eaten at the so-called "baby" stage of growth or when they are only 3 to 6 inches long. Harvesting summer squashes at these younger stages actually promotes more blooms and later production. Beginners should learn destinguish the difference in cultural methods of summer and the hard-rind winter varieties.

To start extra early plants of summer squashes, sown seed in individual pots, plant bands, pint berry baskets or other suitable containers in a coldframe or mild hotbed near or slightly before the middle of April. Because squash plants are difficult to transplant by ordinary methods, final transfer to their growing site should be made without disturbing the roots. This is one of several benefits from developing plants in individual containers.

Gradual increase of ventilation as weather becomes milder will harden plants off and prepare them with hardiness to withstand final transplaning after frost dangers are past in May and the soil is invitingly warm. Unless the coldframe space is more urgently needed, plants may be held there until they are quite large and even nearing the bloom stage.

If standard hotbed sash are available and not in use, a row of extra early summer squash may be started in a simple temporary frame placed where the crop is to grow. A 12-inch board or its equivalent is fastened to stakes along the north side of an east-to-west row, a 4-inch board forms the south side, spaced so a sash 3-feet wide fits the boards when placed lengthwise. The boards may be set on slightly ridged soil to afford greater inside depth. Seed is sown before the sash or frame is erected in place or may be sown after building. Leaf lettuce and radishes may be grown along the front and back while squash plants are developing. After warm weather arrives the frame is taken away.

Like most other members of the cucumber family, summer squashes like a deeply mellow, fertile loam. Some well rotted, pulverized manure is beneficial, worked into the rooting stratum in advance of planting or transplaning time. Commercial fertilizer should have a high phosphoric acid content, something near a 4-12-4 mixture.

Few insect enemies arrive in time to bother these extra early plantings. However, gardeners who have previously encountered squash problems, particularly those with winter varieties, are invited to write the editor for all the advice needed. Please enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply.

Sunday School Lesson

Idolatry. Abraham in Babylon was in the midst of idol worshippers; the sun, moon, stars and other creations were worshipped. So when Abraham chose to worship one and the only true God, he must have been considered a radical by his neighbors.

Two elements stand out prominently in Abraham. He believed and obeyed. He was open at all times to God's direction, had implicit faith and accepted responsibilities. He trained followers after this manner and so became the leader of a chosen people. The way was long and the difficulties many and great. But in the end God and he prevailed.

Apart from a most interesting period in human and Divine history, what meaning has all this for us? It means that a willing individual may at any time be chosen by God for great tasks. Consequently one must be alert to God's purposes. These are learned by close association with him. Cultivate a friendship as did Abraham. Obedience will then become a natural and easy matter.

It also means that nations in our day may be "chosen" to carry out God's puposes. To be so honored and used a people, like a person, must seek to know the mind and will of the Lord. "In God We Trust" is stamped on our coins. It is most urgent to do as we declare. General Omar Bradley has a severe criticism: "We have too many men of science; too few men of God. We have grasped the mystery of the atom and rejected the Sermon on the Mount." It is not too late to turn to God who is our "shield" and and "great reward."

Questions

1. What is a covenant?
2. Who was Abraham's heir?
3. What worship was common?
4. What is essential in a "chosen" person.
5. May modern nations be "chosen"?

Answers

1. A solemn agreement.
2. Isaac.
3. Idolatry.
4. Faith and obedience.
5. Yes, if Godly.

ONE HIT; ONE ERROR

Dansville, N. Y., April 13 (AP) — Mrs. Veronica Greek, 35, took a test for a driver's license and here's what happened: Her automobile and another collided; then her vehicle hit a parked car. John Maher, a state inspector giving the test, was injured slightly. Mrs. Greek failed the test.

Escapes Death In Chair Sixth Time

Harrisburg, April 13 (AP) — Dominic Daversa, 35, sentenced to die in the electric chair Monday for the slaying of his wife, has been given a two-week reprieve by Governor Fine.

The governor's reprieve came after Daversa's attorneys filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the state Supreme court yesterday. It marked the sixth time the execution was delayed by legal maneuvers.

Daversa was convicted of killing his wife, Theresa, 39, on a Greensburg street four years ago. His execution was postponed until the week of April 30.

MAY EXEMPT TEACHERS FROM LOYALTY OATH

Harrisburg, April 13 (AP)—Framers of a hotly-disputed loyalty oath bill today considered striking out a provision requiring vows by teachers in state-aided colleges.

Rep. Albert R. Pechan (R.-Armstrong), sponsor of the bill, said this change is now being considered by legal experts in the state Justice Department.

The bill passed the Senate last week by a 42-7 vote after a stormy debate. It is now awaiting action by the House State Government committee.

Storm Of Protest

The measure would require all state, municipal and school employes to take loyalty oaths declaring they are not subversives. The oath requirement also would extend to faculty members of state colleges and state-aided institutions.

Representatives of the latter group have raised a storm of opposition against their inclusion in the bill. It would affect employes not only of Pennsylvania State college and the Commonwealth's 14 state teachers colleges, but also the University of Pennsylvania, Temple university and the University of Pittsburgh, which also receive state funds.

Pechan said if the oath requirement for the college groups is stricken from the bill, it probably will be replaced by a provision placing the matter on an optional basis at the discretion of the college presidents.

Vets Backing It

He said that in contrast to the opposition to the loyalty oath by college groups, public school teachers have given the bill "a very favorable reception."

"I can't for the life of me see why anyone would be against taking an oath to uphold the constitution, or would be afraid of saying he is not affiliated with a subversive group, unless that person has something to hide," Pechan declared.

He said his bill has the full support of the state American Legion, state VFW and many other patriotic groups. He said he introduced it in line with a request by the U.S. Attorney General who is seeking to have all states pass such laws. Pechan said several states already have enacted loyalty legislation.

Expects Bill To Pass

The Republican Senator predicted that the bill would clear the House in the near future "without too much difficulty." He declared also he would strongly oppose any efforts to "water down" the bill, other than to change the oath requirement for college teachers.

Sen. Bernard B. McGinnis (D.-Allegheny) strongly opposed the bill in the Senate. He declared at that time: "Such a law would never catch a single Communist. It will serve only to offend some school teachers and some other persons conscientiously opposed to taking oaths."

The bill would require immediate dismissal of any affected employes refusing to take the oath. Such persons however would have the right of appeal and a hearing.

MacArthur To Leave Tokyo 5 P.M. Sunday, Gettysburg Time, Enroute To Homeland

Tokyo, April 13 (AP)—General MacArthur will fly to the United States Monday in a fighting mood to challenge the President who fired him over war policy.

This became clear today when his spokesman said MacArthur wants to minimize war, not expand it.

Maj. Gen. Courtney B. Whitney's statement, undoubtedly approved by MacArthur, carried an implied challenge to President Truman on an issue boiling throughout the United States and world capitals.

The issue: Whether to limit the war to Korea and hope the Chinese Reds eventually agree to a peace or to carry the war to Red China by bombing its Manchurian bases and opening a second front with Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist troops.

Truman Feared War

The President advocates the former, MacArthur the latter.

President Truman said Wednesday night that he had fired MacArthur as Far East commander because he feared the general's policies would lead to World War III.

MacArthur wants to expound his views before Congress. That's why he is rushing home to the land he has not visited in 14 years.

Republican leaders are eager to provide the opportunity.

MacArthur's plane was scheduled to leave Tokyo at 7 a.m. Monday (5 p.m., EST, Sunday). The general will be accompanied by his wife, son Arthur, 13, and six intimates.

They will travel in the general's gleaming constellation, "Scap," named after his former title in Japan, "supreme commander, Allied powers."

Spend Night In Hawaii

The party will stop overnight in Hawaii and then proceed to San Francisco. Aides said the subsequent destination and schedule had not been decided.

Whitney's statement said "advocates of the general policy of appeasement" and the Communist press have attempted to propagandize MacAruthur as an advocate of war expansion. It added:

MacArthur "has never advocated or even considered extension of the war except to the limited degree necessary . . . to bring the (Korean) campaign to an honorable end with the minimum loss of human life.

"He believes that appeasement would mean not less but infinitely more ultimate bloodshed and, following historical precedent, might well carry within the seeds of a new world war."

The statement implied only two alternatives in settling the Korean campaign: A limited expansion of the fighting, or appeasement.

The statement, second Whitney has issued since the dismissal, was expected to add new flames to the controversy. Its tone showed MacArthur was not through fighting.

Whitney also said today, on another occasion, that the general was fired without warning and without considering voluntary retirement.

This fresh exposition of his position came as his successor, Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, issued his first general orders taking over MacArthur's commands. Ridgway was in Korea but was expected to return soon to Tokyo.

The MacArthurs will be making their first journey together since escaping from Corregidor in 1942.

It will be young MacArthur's first glimpse of the United States, and the first visit home for his parents since their marriage in 1937.

They will be accompanied by Whitney, the general's aides—Colonels S. L. Huff and L. E. Bunker and Lt. Col. Anthony Story, the pilot—and his personal physician, Col. Charles C. Canada. Mrs. Huff also will be in the party.

Receives Many Messages

MacArthur remained at home today. He already has closed up his office, taking his pipes, his papers and his pictures.

The general has given no indication whether he will issue a personal statement or will make any public appearance before his departure.

The Japanese, who continue to bemoan his dismissal, had hoped to have him appear before a session of the Diet. In any case, most of the country's leaders are expected to be at Haneda airport for the departure.

Emperor Hirohito will send his chamberlain to see the general Saturday.

A large stack of telegrams have arrived, some offering jobs.

There was no comment on the statement by James L. Rand, president of Remington-Rand, Inc., that MacArthur would be elected to the board and assume an active part in the firm's world-wide affairs within 90 days.

Gives Big Tips; Jumps To Death

Miami, Fla., April 13 (AP) — After reportedly passing out $50 tips to a taxi driver and a newspaper boy, an 83-year-old Pennsylvania man plunged to his death from a Miami hotel (El Comodoro).

He was identified by homicide detective B. L. Palmer as Peter L. Burlinger. Palmer said he carried bank books showing deposits of more than $12,500 in the Philadelphia Savings Fund society, the Western Savings Fund society and the Berks County Trust company, of Reading.

He gave only "city" as his address when he registered at the hotel Wednesday evening and told a reporter he was suffering from an incurable kidney ailment.

A passerby spotted him yesterday afternoon poised on the edge of the second floor landing in the rear of the hotel. He landed head first on concrete pavement about 20 feet below. Palmer said no baggage or personal effects were found in the man's room. It was not determined whether his home was in Reading or Philadelphia.

MINISTERIUM ELECTS

Lancaster, April 13 (AP)—The Rev. James Harrison, pastor of Lancaster's Advent church, yesterday was renamed president of the Lancaster conference, Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania. Also reelected at the 168th annual meeting were: The Rev. Lester W. Stoneback, Lebanon, secretary; the Rev. Harold F. Minnich, Lincoln church, treasurer and the Rev. Eldred K. Stauffer, Myerstown, statistician.

It is believed that about 30,000,000 American families cook on gas stoves.

"A Thrift Plan Loan Balanced Our Budget"

...says Mrs. J. A. S. of Erie, Pa.

"After moving into our new apartment, we just had to buy more furniture. Added onto the things we'd bought for our first small place, this made our monthly payments total more than $100, which couldn't be managed without a lot of skimping. A friend suggested we pay off the balance on all these things with a Thrift Plan Loan, and spread the cost over a longer period. That cut our monthly payments almost in half, and really knocked our financial worries for a loop!"

Easy-to-secure Thrift Plan Loans are available for any worthwhile purpose, from paying up old bills to vacationing. Because we believe in you, as a good citizen and neighbor, you can borrow any amount from $30 to $300 without co-signers, and without embarrassing questioning of relatives or friends. You may choose your own low monthly payment plan, taking up to 15 months to repay. Give us a call or drop in today . . . the chances are you can have that much needed cash in less than 24 hours!

SEE NEW WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD SOON

By HAROLD W. WARD

Washington, April 13 (AP)—President Truman probably will have to name a new Wage Stabilization Board with only public membership. He is expected to act within the next 24 hours.

Those opinions were expressed today by both industry and labor leaders called to another White House meeting of President's Mobilization Advisory Board.

The government is under great pressure to set up a board to handle scores of disputes piling up behind the wage freeze.

Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston has said if labor and management cannot agree on what kind of board should supplant the one labor boycotted nearly two months ago, the President has hardly any alternative but to set up a board with only public representation.

Leaders Stand Fast

Leaders of the united labor policy committee have stood fast for weeks in favor of a board which would handle nearly all disputes as they arose.

They say that since wages are frozen and there is a stigma attached to striking during the mobilization emergency, a wage board should handle all sorts of labor-management disputes.

Management spokesmen—representing the National Association of Manufacturers, U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Business Advisory Council of the Commerce Department, and the Committee for Economic Development—were equally insistent on having a board which would handle only wage problems. Other disputes, the management leaders say, should and could be handled under the peacetime Taft-Hartley act governing labor-management relations.

But Mr. Truman and his top mobilization lieutenants contend that agreement is necessary before a tripartite board can operate successfully under the Defense Production act. Labor, industry and the public were represented by three members each on the original wage board. Labor walked out when public and industry members outvoted them six to three in adopting a wage ceiling of 10 per cent over levels of January 15, 1950.

FINE ATTACKS TAX SUBSTITUTE AS "MAKESHIFT"

Harrisburg, April 13 (AP) — Gov. Fine, turning on his budget critics, asserted today there is no escaping that the state must raise $163,000,000 in new taxes.

He so stated in attacking as "makeshift" a proposed alternative financial program.

"A recently suggested financial program for the state has no basis on fact and is simply a 'makeshift' program," Fine said in a statement. He added:

"The simple fact may be repeated—we have been obligated to pay $12,000,000 for which no revenue has been provided. This money and the balance of the $163,000,000 needed for the next biennium can only come from taxes."

Backs Up Figures

Fine has proposed enactment of a one-half of one per cent flat income tax estimated to raise $119,000,000 and a one per cent increase in the present four per cent corporate net income tax to raise the balance of the $163,000,000 in new revenue for the next two years.

He released a mass of statistics to show what he termed the "mythical" nature of the proposed alternative financial program.

He said the figures of that program are "scrambled and untrustworthy" in contrast with his own budget. The latter, he said, was put together on the basis of "past experience" and "safe projection."

Cut C-D Program

The other program suggested these points as a means of avoiding the need for Fine's proposed income tax:

1. Re-enact the state's $30,000,000 soft drink tax, scheduled by Fine to be dropped.
2. Boost the corporate net income tax from four to five per cent to raise an extra $44,000,000.
3. Cut the $20,000,000 civil defense appropriation earmarked by Fine for civil defense reserve down to $2,000,000.
4. Add an extra $60,000,000 to anticipated returns from existing taxes.

The program will also be carried over Philadelphia, Channel 10, and Baltimore, Channel 2. The girls, who do a baton twirling act, are scheduled to appear on future television shows. The president, Mrs. James W. Fager, presided at the business meeting. She read a paper entitled, "Land of Peace and Justice, Uruguay," which concerned the theme for the month of April, Pan-Americanism.

An invitation was read from John H. Blue Cross Plan Is Closing Drive

Blue Cross, non-profit, non-commercial hospitalization plan, is winding up its membership drive in the Littlestown Community Group on Saturday.

"This is the last opportunity this year for residents of Littlestown and rural routes to enroll in this widespread social agency for protection against the burden of costly hospital expenses," said James Bush, York district director of Capital Hospital Service, Inc.

The director further explained that Blue Cross members have their hospital bills paid in full, with no claims to file, and no annoying delay. Members simply present their membership card upon entering a member hospital, and from there on Blue Cross takes care of all reasonable expenses from 21 to 31 days, depending on length of membership.

"These services include such costly items as: Semi-private room, meals, general nursing service, maternity room care, X-ray, laboratory service, drugs, operating room, anesthesia, blood or plasma transfusion, electrocardiograms, physical therapy, etc. These services are provided for in-patient care when and if they are essential to and consistent with the diagnosis and treatment of the condition for which the patient is admitted," Mr. Bush said.

Enrollment information and application blanks may be obtained today and Saturday at the Littlestown State bank.
